

SPECIAL Spirituality In The Pub (SIP)

at the KILDARA CENTRE, Rear 39 Stanhope St, Malvern

SATURDAY 25th June 2011
“Leadership in the Church”

*One of the greatest challenges facing us all is to find ways to live creatively within our institutions.
Can we imagine a future church
where the leadership will help us in our efforts?*

Come, share a drink and engage in some stimulating conversation at SIP at the KILDARA CENTRE. This special “model” SIP is part of our SIP weekend.

When? Saturday 25th June 2011

Time: Come to dinner first at 6.30pm (you need to book/see below)
SIP commences at 7.30pm and ends at 9.00pm (no need to book)

Speakers: JACINTA BRIGHT: Jacinta Bright is a married woman, mother and a recent grandmother. Since 1990 Jacinta has been employed in four parishes within the Archdiocese of Melbourne as a Pastoral Associate; Currently, Jacinta is Pastoral Associate at St Mary's Parish, Greensborough. Jacinta is also a spiritual director formed in the Ignatian Tradition.

GARRY EASTMAN: Garry Eastman is the Executive Chairman of John Garratt Publishing. He has been involved in Catholic publishing for over 40 years particularly in the founding and successful publishing of Dove Communications. He also played a major role in Australian publishing serving on the Publishers Association Executive for 10 years including two years as President. Apart from his continuing role in John Garratt, he spends most of his time these days on three acres near Wilsons Promontory where he grows native trees and tends his vegetable garden.
